CORRESPONDENCE

Item # 1

– Mayor Lucas and Council Members received the October 2010 Police Report for review.

Item # 2 –

Computer Center Supervisor Joyce Fluharty submitted a productivity report, which indicated 42 students have been trained in their classes thus far this year and more classes are planned throughout the month of November. Work continues on the Town website with just a few more categories to be completed. They are working on a virtual walking tour of some of the historic structures in Town. Their revenue continues to increase with classes and sale of flash drives, etc.

Councilman Comer inquired what type of information is needed for the Town's economic development portion of the Town's website?

Councilman Jenkins stated it would be what programs the Town has available for business incentives and information on previously awarded grants, etc.
